- (7) Name and address of the farm.
- (8) Commission Decision 2001/183/EC laying down EC-Model A – at least four years documented freedom including two year active targeted surveillance, or EC Model B – at least six years documented freedom including two year active targeted surveillance, or surveillance methods as described in the OIE Manual of diagnostic tests for aquatic animals, Chapter 1.1.4 and the relevant disease chapters.

- (11) According to Annex B, I A to Directive 91/67/EEC a part of a water catchment area can only be declared free from a disease if it consists of the upper part of the catchment area from its sources of the waterways to a natural or artificial barrier preventing fish migrating from downstream of that barrier.
- (12) The competent authority of the Member State can declare a water catchment area free of Gyrodactylus salaris provided compliance with the requirements in Annex I, Chapter 1.B of This Decision (SANCO/2004/453/EC). Any such declaration of freedom shall be communicated to the Commission and other Member States and shall be open to scrutiny on request.
- (13) When declaring continental zones free of Gyrodactylus salaris, it must be taken into account that the disease may spread by migrating fish between different continental zones if the salinity between them is low or intermediate (below 25 ppt). Hence one individual continental zone can not be declared free if another continental zone draining into the same coastal zone is infected or has unknown status, unless they are separated by seawater with salinity above 25 ppt.
