

This form is for sponsoring a visitor or a number of visitors. If you wish to support your partner or intended partner's application for a visitor visa/permit you must also complete the Form for partners supporting partnership-based temporary entry applications (INZ 1146).

What do I have to do?

Take this completed form and any supporting documents to a person authorised to make a statutory declaration, for their signature. When they have signed it, send the form and the attachments to the person you are sponsoring. That person should then include the form and attachments with their application for a visitor's visa or permit. Please recognise that your sponsorship does not guarantee that the visitor you are sponsoring will be issued a visa or granted a permit. Sponsorship is only one of a number of policy requirements the applicant must meet before an application for a visa or permit can be approved.

Who do I see to complete the statutory declaration?

Any Justice of the Peace, Solicitor or Notary Public can complete the declaration. You will find them in the yellow pages of your phone book under Justice of the Peace, Solicitor or Notaries Public.

Who can be a sponsor?

A sponsor must:

- be a relative or friend of the applicant* and either
- be a New Zealand Citizen; or
- hold a New Zealand residence permit that is not subject to requirements imposed under section 18A of the Immigration Act 1987.

A sponsor must also be able to provide proof of the above.

Note: If you are sponsoring a visitor or visitors under the parent and grandparent multiple entry visitor's visa policy, you must be a child or grandchild of the principal applicant (or the parent of the principal applicant's child or grandchild).

What do I have to do if I sponsor a visitor?

By filling out this form, you are sponsoring a visitor, or a number of visitors. Your obligations include providing accommodation, maintenance, and repatriation. This means you undertake and agree to reimburse the Crown for all costs and expenses incurred by the Crown associated with the applicant or the people you are sponsoring for the whole length of their visit (whether they are on a temporary permit, or are in New Zealand unlawfully).

If you do not carry out the responsibilities you have agreed to, it is likely that Immigration New Zealand (part of the Department of Labour) will recover from you any costs incurred in the removal process for the person/s who have been sponsored.

As a sponsor you undertake to repay the New Zealand Government any costs to the New Zealand Government which may result from your failure to meet your obligations as sponsor, and if you fail to repay any such costs to the New Zealand Government a debt for the amount of those costs, is then due to the Crown which may then be enforced against you in the New Zealand Courts.

Please note that residents and people holding work permits for a stay of two years or more (and their dependent children) are eligible for publicly funded health and disability services. Other work permit holders, students, and visitor permit holders generally are not eligible. People covered by New Zealand's Reciprocal Health Agreements with Australia and the UK are entitled to publicly funded health care for immediately necessary medical treatment only. We therefore strongly recommend that your visitor has comprehensive health insurance for the duration of their visit. For more information visit the Ministry of Health website at www.moh.govt.nz.

Attach to this form evidence of:

- your ability to provide accommodation for the visitor(s); and
- your ability to provide financial assistance and the costs of any health care (unless you are providing a Declaration of Financial Undertaking); and
- your residence status.

Matters required by the Privacy Act

The information about you on this form is collected to determine your eligibility for sponsoring a visitor to New Zealand.

The main recipient of the information is the Department of Labour but it may also be shared with other Government agencies, which are entitled to the information under applicable legislation.

The collection of the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 1987 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. The supply of the information is voluntary, but if you do not supply it then the visitor's application may be declined.

You have the right to access the information about you held by Immigration New Zealand (part of the Department of Labour) and to ask for any of it to be corrected if you think that is necessary.
