Agreement

By checking the box below I certify that I have read and agree to Obadiah's terms and conditions. I understand that I am entering into a legally binding contract with Obadiah's. I will fully inspect any freight that I receive and note any damage on the Bill Of Lading. If the product has damage that is repairable I will note it on the Bill Of Lading and accept the product. Obadiah's will then make a claim on my behalf and send me the parts to repair the product. I can either choose to have someone repair the product for me, or repair the product myself. If the product is beyond repair I will refuse it. By failing to note damage on the Bill Of Lading I will be responsible for making my own claim with the freight company and can not hold Obadiah's liable.

If I decide I would like to return the product I may do so. The product must be new in undamaged condition. I will be charged a 20% restocking fee and will also be responsible for the freight to send the product back to Obadiah's. I will not be refunded any of my original shipping charges.

By signing this form and returning to Obadiah's via e-mail, fax or postal mail; I agree to the above terms and conditions.
