2009: Important Tax Information for Fidelity Congress Street Fund Shareholders

Revised, due to updated tax data. Please discard the earlier version of this letter.

Dear Fidelity Investor:

We are writing to provide you with tax information about your investment in Fidelity Congress Street Fund.

During 2009 Fidelity Congress Street Fund retained $23.04 per share in undistributed long-term capital gains, and paid $8.07 per share in federal corporate income tax on those undistributed long-term capital gains. As a result, by March 31, 2010, Fidelity will mail you an IRS Form 2439, Notice to Shareholder of Undistributed Long-Term Capital Gains.

Please use the information you receive on Form 2439 as you complete your tax returns. The form will provide the dollar amounts of undistributed long-term capital gains and corporate income tax paid on those gains specific to your account. Generally, you will also need to attach a copy of Form 2439 to your federal income tax returns.

Please refer to the IRS Instructions accompanying Form 2439 for further information. We suggest you consult with your tax advisor, who is most familiar with your circumstances and the laws of the state in which you reside, to determine how you should report this information on your federal and state tax returns.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please call our Tax Reporting Line at 1-800-544-6666, or visit our Web site at Fidelity.com/tax. Fidelity representatives are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Sincerely,

Margaret Serravalli
