6d. Are you interested in sheltered housing?

Sheltered housing provides individual, self contained homes for older people over the age of 60. By self contained, we mean having its own kitchen and bathroom and usually its own private entrance. The properties are generally grouped together and may be bungalows, ground floor or first-floor flats often with communal facilities such as a lounge, laundry and guest rooms. Many sheltered developments offer the services of a sheltered housing officer who has regular contact with residents.

About other housing options

Due to the demand for housing within South Lanarkshire and the requirement to house applicants who are in the most housing need, the HomeFinder landlords offer other housing options such as a mutual exchange scheme. This is where tenants can swap homes with the consent of their landlord. Mutual exchanges can take place between South Lanarkshire Council tenants, tenants of other Councils or tenants of Housing Associations or Co-ops. If you choose this option, details of where you stay and where you wish to move to will be made available to other applicants also looking for a mutual exchange.

7a. If you are a tenant of the Council or any of the other HomeFinder landlords, do you wish to consider a mutual exchange?

Low cost home ownership schemes. These aim to help people on low income who wish to own their own home, but cannot afford the full price for a house.

If you are interested in finding out more about these schemes, please tick the box below and further information will be sent to you.

7b. Do you wish any further information on low cost home ownership schemes?
