Data Protection Notification

We may use the details you have given to provide you with a quotation, deal with your policy, to search credit reference agencies who may keep a record of the search, to support the development of our business by including your details in customer surveys, and for market research and compliance business reviews.

We may share your details with other companies within the Allianz group of companies or pass them to third parties so that we may tell you of products and services, which we think may interest you, by telephone, email or post. If you do not want to know about these products and services, please write to: Customer Satisfaction Manager, 57 Ladymead, Guildford, Surrey, GU1 1DB, United Kingdom. Under the Data Protection Act we can only discuss the details given with you.

If you would like anyone else to act on your behalf please let us know. Your details will not be kept longer than is necessary.

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 1998, you are entitled to a copy of all the information Allianz Insurance plc holds about you. Your personal details may be transferred to countries outside of the EU. They will at all times be held securely and handled with the utmost care in accordance with all principles of the UK law.

VERY IMPORTANT – FRAUDULENT AND EXAGGERATED CLAIMS

Deliberately exaggerated claims could invalidate your policy cover. Insurance fraud is a crime and liable to prosecution.

The above answers to our questions will be the basis of consideration of your claim. You must ensure that all information is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief, and that all material facts have been disclosed.

A material fact is one that is likely to influence us in the assessment or acceptance of this claim, or one that is likely to influence our consideration of cover under the terms of your policy.

If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is material, you must disclose it.

FAILURE TO DO THIS MAY MEAN THAT YOUR POLICY BECOMES INVALID AND A CLAIM PAYMENT WILL NOT BE MADE.

I/We hereby declare that to the best of my/our knowledge and belief the foregoing statements are true and complete
