17. Recruitment policy

It is the company's policy to employ the best qualified personnel and provide equal opportunity for the advancement of employees including promotion and training and not to discriminate against any person because of race, colour, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, age or disability.

Data Protection Act 1998

I understand that the company needs to collect and use certain types of information about employees, in order to operate its business and to fulfil its legal obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998 and that the information I have provided on this application form will be used during the recruitment process and if appointed will be used as part of my personnel records.

I consent to the company holding such information on file only for as long as it considers necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it was obtained and to process (including disposing and destroying) it in accordance with the eight Data Protection Principles and the other requirements of the Act and any other procedures laid down by the company for this purpose from time to time. I understand that the company will take all reasonable precautions at all times to guard information against any unauthorised access and use.

I authorise the company to obtain references to support this application process and release the company and referees from any liability caused by giving and receiving information.

Declaration: I confirm that the information given on this form is, to the best of my knowledge, true and complete. Any false statement may be sufficient cause for rejection or, if employed, dismissal.
