

Application for online banking and superuser mandate

This mandate is used to:

- apply for online banking; and
- nominate a superuser who will manage your use of online banking

You can only have one superuser at any time.

Please note that sole traders may not appoint superusers.

Please complete the following information

Account holder details

Account name  Account number

We will enable all of the accounts held by you under the same name as the account listed above so that they can be accessed through online banking.

We will also give the superuser access to all the accounts held by you in the same name.

Application for online banking

I/We apply for Investec online banking (tick)

Appointment of a superuser

A superuser has wide powers in relation to online banking and you should select someone you believe is capable of performing that role responsibly. You will be liable for all the actions of your superuser and any online users appointed by your superuser in relation to the operation and administration of your account(s) using online banking.

Your superuser can:

- access information about you and your account(s) using online banking;
- give us instructions relating to your account(s) using online banking. These instructions include instructions to transfer money from your account(s);
- appoint online users, who are also able to access all of your account information online and to give us instructions relating to your account(s) (including instructions to transfer money) using online banking. The superuser can set different permissions for different online users; and
- add further online users, remove online users or amend online users' details or permissions

For more information about the superuser, including how to change the superuser, please refer to the terms of your account(s).
