Students, faculty, and staff who join Clarkson School become members of a unique academic community with strong traditions and commitment to developing personal excellence. While we are all individuals, we are also part of the larger Clarkson community and the community at large. Community living demands that individuals balance freedoms with respect for the rights of others. The Clarkson University Regulations clarifies these issues within the Clarkson community and your student host is expected to abide by these policies. In addition, issues that impact the community at large are addressed. Please take a moment to review the Clarkson University Regulations at <http://www.clarkson.edu/studentaffairs/regulations> and the Program Guidelines below. Then please sign this waiver form to acknowledge both receipt of the relevant pages of the student handbook as well as compliance with these policies and procedures. Parents or guardians must sign this form as well.
