Important information:

If you provide an Excess Value Declaration for your hold luggage, Germania Fluggesellschaft can, on Germania Fluggesellschaft flights, raise the upper liability limit (currently 1,131 special drawing rights per passenger) to a maximum of €6,000 per passenger and flight route.

Please complete the table overleaf as accurately as you can, providing details of all the items you are carrying, and including their packaging (suitcases, travel bags, etc.).

Please note:

- To submit an Excess Value Declaration, a surcharge of 5% of the declared value of your luggage is payable when checking in before travelling. The surcharge is paid when checking in and can only be paid in cash.
- Once paid, surcharges cannot be refunded.
- Each Excess Value Declaration applies only to one single flight route. If you want to secure your return flight as well, you will need two Declarations.
- Germania reserves the right to check the items you have declared before you fly.
- Germania shall not be liable for any more than the value declared by the passenger, even if the luggage has been valued too low.
- Apart from that, the Germania Fluggesellschaft mbH Terms and Conditions of Business and Terms of Carriage apply.

Please show the completed form when you check in, and keep the copy you are given with you throughout the flight. In the event of loss or damage, please submit a copy of the Excess Value Declaration to Germania Fluggesellschaft.

I hereby confirm that I have read, understood and accepted the above conditions.
