◆ REQUESTING CLE FOR ATTORNEYS ◆

Calculating Credit

The available credit, based on a 60-minute hour, is in italics below on the request form. Please note that individual states have the final authority on the acceptance of credits, and some states only accept credit on a 50-minute hour. Please check with your state bar.

Individual State Accreditation

Please visit www.turnaround.org for updated information regarding individual state approval. Please note:

- The following states do not require CLE: Alaska, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Hawaii, Massachusetts, Maryland, Michigan, Nebraska, New Jersey and South Dakota.
- California and New York are “approved jurisdiction” states, meaning credit is awarded based on the approval of other CLE states, unless the program is being held in-state.
- Arizona and Kansas do not require sponsor applications. Rather, attorneys must apply individually to the State Bar for accreditation.

◆ REQUESTING CPE FOR ACCOUNTANTS ◆

Calculating Credit

CPE is calculated based on a 50-minute hour, rounded down to the nearest whole or half credit based on NASBA policy. The available credit, based on NASBA policy, is in italics on the request form.
