AUDITION OPTIONS

Select ONE of the options below.

- Option 1a (Organ applicants: see Option 2. Fall 2011 voice applicants: see Option 1b.):
I am requesting a live, on-campus audition (please indicate a first and second choice of preferred dates).

Primary Instrument _____

<input type="checkbox"/> Saturday, November 13, 2010 (Spring admission only, no flute, percussion)
<input type="checkbox"/> Saturday, January 29, 2011	<input type="checkbox"/> Saturday, February 19, 2011 (No clarinet, percussion)
<input type="checkbox"/> Saturday, February 5, 2011	<input type="checkbox"/> Saturday, February 26, 2011 (No clarinet)

Composition interviews are conducted on the November 13, February 5, and February 19 audition dates.

- Option 1b (Vocalists Applying for Fall 2011 Only):
Voice Type _____

In order to be considered for a live, on-campus audition, applicants for all voice concentrations must submit a prescreening recording. All prescreening materials must be uploaded to <http://asumusic.slideroom.com> and complete application materials submitted by December 1, 2010 to be considered for the Fall 2011 semester. Please note that applications received without a prescreening recording will be considered incomplete, and the applicant will not be considered for an invitation to a live audition.

If invited for a live, on-campus audition, I am requesting the following audition date (please indicate a first and second choice of preferred dates). Check here if you will need ASU to provide an accompanist for your audition.

<input type="checkbox"/> Saturday, February 19, 2011	<input type="checkbox"/> Saturday, February 26, 2011

- Option 2: I have arranged a live, on-campus ad hoc audition. (This option is required for organ applicants and not available to voice applicants.)

I will audition on _____ at _____ with _____.
Date Time Faculty Name

Application Deadline: All materials must be received no later than one week prior to the ad hoc audition date.

- Option 3: I am submitting a CD/DVD[†] recording for this application.

I have enclosed the audition recording[†] with this application.

My audition recording[†] will be submitted by 5:00 p.m. MST on October 15, 2010 (Spring 2010 admission) or February 1, 2011 (Fall 2011 admission).

While a live, on-campus audition is desirable, those who are unable to visit the campus may submit a recorded audition. Applicants submitting a CD/DVD recording will not be eligible for scholarship consideration. Audition recordings must be received, with all application materials, no later than 5:00 p.m. MST on October 15, 2010 (Spring 2010 admission) or February 1, 2011 (Fall 2011 admission).

[†] Audition recordings should be in high quality and U.S. compatible in either video or audio format. All discs should be clearly labeled with your name, phone number, repertoire, instrument, and degree sought.

Every entering undergraduate student will be considered for financial aid if the student has:

- Submitted both University and School of Music application materials AND
- Been admitted to the University AND
- Completed a live, on-campus audition by November 15, 2010 (Spring 2011 admission) and February 15, 2011 (Fall 2011 admission).

Financial aid offers are made in December (Spring admission) and March (Fall admission).

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

- Arizona State University application submitted.
- School of Music Application Part A, including Audition Options (page 3): All undergraduate music applicants must perform a live audition or submit an audition recording.
- School of Music Application Part B: Essay
- School of Music Application Part C: Repertoire List
- Three Letters of Recommendation using the enclosed Recommendation Forms. May be submitted along with or separately from School of Music application materials.
- Artistic résumé (optional)
- Composition applicants: A portfolio of 3-5 of your strongest compositions in a variety of genres. A CD may be submitted as well, but is not mandatory. Please also include a compositional statement describing any previous experience as a composer or arranger and, in general, the types of music you have written (such as instrumental, choral, jazz, etc.).
- Voice applicants applying for Fall 2011 admission only: Prescreening recording uploaded to <http://asumusic.slideroom.com> by December 1, 2010.

IMPORTANT DATES

October 15, 2010	Final application deadline for Spring 2011 applicants: Complete application materials including audition recordings (if applicable) must be received by 5:00 p.m. MST.
November 15, 2011	Deadline for Spring 2011 financial aid consideration: Student must be admitted to the University and have completed a live, on-campus audition by this date for financial aid consideration.
December 1, 2010	Application deadline for Fall 2011 voice applicants: All application and prescreening materials must be received by 5:00 p.m. MST.
January 15, 2011	Final application deadline for Fall 2011 instrumental applicants: Complete application materials must be received by 5:00 p.m. MST.
February 1, 2011	Deadline for receipt of audition recordings for Fall 2011 admission (if applicable): Recorded auditions, with complete application materials, must be received by 5:00 p.m. MST.
February 15, 2011	Deadline for Fall 2011 financial aid consideration: Student must be admitted to the University and have completed a live, on-campus audition by this date for financial aid consideration.
February 28, 2011	Due to University deadlines, NO auditions will be considered after this date for Fall 2011 admission

Auditions will be scheduled only after University and School of Music application materials have been received and processed. Application materials must be received in completion before 5:00 p.m. MST on the due date (see page 3). Applications received after that date and time may not be accommodated. Applications are processed in the order they are received; to secure an audition on your preferred date, early application is recommended. Because of faculty availability and the high volume of applicants, it is not possible honor special requests of any kind for particular times on an audition day. No scheduling change requests will be considered within three weeks of an audition date.

I certify that the information I have provided is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge, and I understand that by applying for admission, I am giving Arizona State University the right to inquire into those matters pertinent to this application. Should any of the information I have given change, I shall immediately notify the School of Music.
