Game Lab Moderator Application

The game labs of DePaul CDM are looking for personable applicants with a background in video games to help with the moderation and maintenance of the two gaming research labs (CDM 920 and CDM 721).

Responsibilities include (but are not limited to) greeting visitors to the lab, checking out/in university equipment, basic PC maintenance and troubleshooting, assisting users in selecting games, teaching play mechanics, keeping the labs clean, orderly, and functional, and enforcing the lab policies.

Applicants must be current enrolled students at DePaul University with a minimum of 6 credit hours per quarter. An applicant need not be a CDM major. Background knowledge of video games is critical to being one of the lab moderators, along with people and basic computing skills. Compensation is $8.50 an hour with opportunities for yearly advancement.

If you feel you qualify, fill out the application below and submit to: Charley Wilcox (CDM 4th Floor)
