Challenges In Deer Research and Management in 2013

February 24-26, 2013

Greenville, South Carolina

Meeting Donation Request

The South Carolina Department of Natural Resources (SCDNR) will host the 2013 Southeast Deer Study Group (SEDSG) meeting February 24-26, 2013 in Greenville, South Carolina. This will be the 36th annual meeting of deer biologists, managers, researchers and enthusiasts.

Hosted on a rotating basis by a different southeastern state wildlife agency's deer management section, the conference provides deer biologists, managers and researchers a venue for presenting their most recent findings on deer biology and management. South Carolina previously hosted the event in Charleston in 1997 and 1982.

To help support this meeting, we are soliciting sponsors and donations. Expenditures for the SEDSG meeting are being handled by the Harry Hampton Memorial Wildlife Fund. The Harry Hampton Memorial Wildlife Fund is a non-profit organization. Donations made to Harry Hampton Fund are tax deductible.
