Let your imagination travel...

...read a good book!

Now that you are an official passenger, use this — your Reading Passport — to record your journey. I have listed some easy steps to help guide you in your reading travels:

- 1). Choose at least three interesting books and start reading!
- 2). When you finish each book, write down the title, the author and what the book was about. Tell me about the places you visited, people you met and exciting things that happened along the way.
- 3). After you finish writing about your reading adventures, have a parent sign the Passport.
- 4). Put a stamp on your Passport and mail it back to me. Once I receive your completed Passport, I will send you a special certificate congratulating you on your exciting journey.

Have a great trip!

Your friend,

Senator John J. Flanagan
2nd Senate District
