Advances in Geriatrics

Dear Potential Exhibitor:

On June 24, 2011 the University of Miami School of Medicine, Miami Area Geriatric Education Center (MAGEC), and the Miami VA Geriatric Research, Education, and Clinical Center, will present the Aging in Place: Living Well in the Community.

This Geriatrics Conference is designed to deliver cutting-edge presentations that will enhance the knowledge of care providers regarding various aspect of successful community dwelling.

We will be hosting the conference at the Miami Airport Marriott. We anticipate an audience of approximately 70-100 multicultural professionals to attend. Participants will include physicians, case managers, social workers, occupational therapists, physical therapists, nurses, psychologists, mental health professionals, guardians, nursing home administrators, academic educators, and local community agencies serving the elderly.

This conference will provide a unique opportunity for key organizations in the fields of aging and geriatrics to showcase their services and/or products through our exhibit area. There is a limited amount of space available for exhibits, and we hope that your organization will participate in this exciting event.

Please complete the exhibit application entirely and return to our office via fax or mail.

For more information regarding this event, please contact our office at (305) 355-9123. Thank you and we look forward to your participation.
