
UNCONTESTED DIVORCE E-Z FORMS NO CHILDREN

The forms in this packet may be used to file for a divorce if:

- You do not have any children with your spouse.
- You believe your spouse will not contest the divorce.
- No one is requesting alimony.

These forms are shorter, less numerous, and easier to complete than the standard forms. They may be used when there is no disagreement, or no expected disagreement, between the husband and wife about how to divide assets and how to pay joint and separate debts. Most people will be able to complete the forms without assistance from a legal service provider.

The packet contains:

WORD OF CAUTION

If you have real estate, retirement/pension benefits, or other valuable property, you may wish to consult an attorney before using these forms. Additional documents may be necessary to allocate or transfer these assets.

Why do I have two copies of some documents?

One copy is intended as a worksheet and the other is for your final document. Please note that some documents only have a final copy.

Am I required to type the final document?

No. All forms may be printed clearly in black ink.

When is the divorce finished and how long will it take?

Your divorce is finished when you receive a copy of the Judgment of Divorce from the court with a judge's signature or stamp.

If you and your spouse cooperate in completing the necessary papers, you should receive the Judgment of Divorce from the court approximately two weeks after you submit the correctly completed forms.

If you are filing with children, your divorce will not be finalized until you attend Kids First.

If your spouse does not cooperate by signing the necessary forms, you must wait at least twenty days after the completion of service before submitting your final documents. Allow an additional two weeks for the court to process them.

Am I required to see a judge to get a divorce?

No. If your papers are filled out correctly, the judge will grant a divorce without requiring you to come to court. If your papers are not filled out correctly, you will be required to come to court.

How much does it cost?

The filing fee is $175, $225 if you have children. If you cannot afford the filing fee, you may be eligible for a fee waiver. A fee waiver form can be obtained at the Service Center in the courthouse, 2145 Main Street, Room 141A, Wailuku, 96793.

What is a certified copy?

A certified copy is a copy of a document that has the signature of the clerk and a statement that "This copy is a true and accurate copy of the original." It also has a raised emblem stamped on the form. You can tell if a copy is certified by feeling the form for the raised seal which is located by the clerk's signature.

Follow These Instructions ONLY If:

- You have discussed the divorce with your spouse.
- You and your spouse agree with each others about how you will divide all of your assets and pay all of your debts.
- You are sure your spouse will sign the Judgment of Divorce in front of a Notary Public.

HOW DO I SERVE MY SPOUSE?

PERSONAL SERVICE

SERVICE BY MAIL

PUBLICATION

THESE INSTRUCTIONS ARE TO BE USED AS A GUIDE ONLY AND IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR PROPER LEGAL ADVICE.

What does Service mean?

“Service” means delivering certain court papers to the opposing party in a legal action. The purpose is to inform the opposing party of an upcoming court action. In a divorce case, the opposing party is your spouse. Proper service is required at the beginning of every divorce action because:

- It tells your spouse what is going on.
- It gives your spouse a chance to respond to the Court papers.

There are three methods of service:

Personal Service

Use this method when your spouse lives within the state of Hawai'i.

Service by Mail

Use this method when your spouse lives outside the State of Hawai'i. You may also choose to use this method if your spouse lives outside the County of Maui.

Publication

Use this method when you do not know where your spouse lives and your unable to find out from family, friends, employers, phone directories, and other sources.

Personal Service

Personal Service means the required documents are personally hand delivered to your spouse. You cannot serve your spouse yourself, but anyone else can, as long as he or she is at least 18 years old. You can choose a reliable friend or relative or a civil process agent to deliver the documents to your spouse. The Service Center at the courthouse has a listing of available civil process agents.

If you want someone you know to serve your spouse:

Any adult other than yourself, including a relative or friend, can serve your spouse with the required documents. Choose a reliable person and remember:

- The server must personally hand the documents to your spouse. The server cannot leave them in the mailbox, give them to another person, or slide them under the door.
- The server does not need to talk to your spouse when the documents are hand delivered.

- The server is not permitted to deliver the documents to your spouse between the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., unless it is at a place open to the public during those hours. Examples of such establishments are restaurants, service stations, and convenience stores. The server is not allowed to serve the documents at a residence between the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.
- Have the server write down the date, time, and exact address where your spouse was served. If possible, have the server get your spouse's signature somewhere on the Proof of Service (E-Z Form 4).

After delivering the documents, the server must complete the Proof of Service (E-Z Form 4) including the signature and date. It must be returned to you to file with the Court.

If you want to hire a civil process agent to serve your spouse:

If you do not want a friend or relative to serve your spouse, you must hire a civil process agent.

For a list of civil process agents in Maui County, contact the Service Center, 2145 Main Street, Room 141A, Wailuku, Hawai'i, 244-2706. The Service Center has the list of civil process agents for the City and County of Honolulu, Hawai'i County and Kaua'i County, you must pay the civil process agent to serve the divorce papers. The normal fee is $25 plus mileage expenses of $0.40 per mile each way. You should check with the listed civil process agents in the county for the most current information about the cost of serving papers. All fees must be paid in cash, money order, or a cashier's check.

Give the civil process agent:

2 copies of the Proof of Service (Form 4)

1 certified copy of the Complaint

1 Financial Statement

Summons (Combined Forms 1 + 2 + 3) or (Combined Forms 21 + 2 + 3).

Also provide the civil process agent with a stamped self-addressed envelope to return the completed Proof of Service (Form 4) to you. If the Form 4 which you receive back is not file-marked, check with the civil process agent or the Documents Section at the court.

Service by Mail

If your spouse does not live in the State of Hawai'i, you are permitted to send the documents by mail if you follow certain procedures and get permission from the Court. You may also choose to use this method if your spouse lives outside the County of Maui.

See information in Specific Instructions B or CH-B.

1. Complete Form 5 (Motion for Service by Mail, Order for Service by Mail) by following Specific Instructions B or CH-B, on Form 5.
2. Mail a certified copy of the Complaint, Financial Statement, and Summons (Forms 1, 2, & 3) by following Specific Instructions B or CH-B.
3. When you receive the Return Receipt from the post office, complete Form 6 (Statement of Mailing) by following Specific Instructions B or CH-B.

Publication

Follow Specific Instructions B or CH-B if you must serve your spouse by publication. Service by Publication is the most expensive method of service. The Maui News charges approximately $400. It is also the least favored. It should be used only when you have completely lost contact with your spouse and you are unable to discover where he or she is.

Note: If you are unable to pay the cost of publication, the court may allow you to serve your spouse by mailing to a last known address and posting the Complaint & Summons at the Courthouse instead of publishing notice in a newspaper. Contact the Service Center, 2145 Main Street, Room 141A, Wailuku, Hawai'i, 244-2706, for instructions and forms for Service by Posting and Mail in Lieu of Publication.
