

4th Quarter 2009 Electronic Forms Update

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts is pleased to make these forms available to the public, attorneys and various advocacy groups via the Judicial Department website. We encourage you to use the website to complete and print forms whenever possible. AOC forms are under constant review and not all forms are available on the website at this time. The Judicial Department website address is www.nccourts.org. Select the “Forms” tab just beneath the banner at the top of the page to bring up the Judicial Forms search engine and follow the directions.

- (1) The symbol § is used to denote a form that is currently available on the website.
- (2) If the § symbol is followed by an F, the form is at least partially fillable from the website.
- (3) Red text indicates that the form is recently revised or is new.

The forms in this list are available in portable document format (PDF) for the public and other users on the Judicial Department website, www.nccourts.org. Fillable forms may be completed within your web browser or may be saved to your computer and used without accessing the Internet each time. Adobe Acrobat Reader, a free software package available from www.adobe.com is required to access and complete fillable forms. You cannot access the forms directly from this list; you must first access the forms search screen at <http://www.nccourts.org/Forms/FormSearch.asp>. Follow the instructions on the screen.

The office of the Clerk of Superior Court continues to be the main source of AOC forms for many individuals and organizations. Please note that all forms with the “M” suffix are model forms and as such are not produced in quantity or stocked by the clerk’s office. The clerk may choose to copy an “M” form for you from the Judicial Department Forms Manual, print a copy from proprietary software or, if it is available electronically, suggest that you print the form from the website. Those individuals/firms/organizations without access to the Internet may continue to obtain forms from the Clerk of Superior Court.
