In order for us to complete the processing of your 2011-2012 financial aid application, we need the following information. It is important to provide Grand View University with any requested materials as soon as possible. An award letter will not be issued and/or funds will not be applied to your billing account until all needed materials have been received.

- The amount of interest and dividend income reported on your 2010 Federal Tax Return is $ _____; however, only $ _____ is reported in cash, savings, checking, and investments on your financial aid application (FAFSA). Please explain to us what assets are producing this income. List below the name/type of asset, the interest/dividend income earned from the asset in 2010, and the total dollar value of the asset as of _____ (the date you filed the FAFSA). If there has been a decrease in the value of the asset since you filed your income tax return, please use the back of this form to provide an explanation.
