Class Details	Semester: SPRING 2013  Full Title of Course: Extensive Intermediate Italian I  Meeting Days and Times: Days: M,W,R – 60'/Day  Classroom Location: TBD
Prerequisites	ITAL-UA9010 Intensive Elementary Italian or ITAL-UA9002 Elementary Italian II
Class	Learning Goals:
Description	Comprehension: students will gain understanding of oral and written communication on various topics, ranging from basic routine tasks to travel, shopping, cultural customs and events in the past, present and future. They will appreciate the increasingly elaborate expression of personal wishes, feelings and hopes. Students will recognize key information in the reading and listening of authentic material, provided it is clearly presented and structured, and will understand to some extent advanced texts featuring narration and description of events.
	Production : students will be able to handle a large range of conversation tasks and standard social situations. They will be able to interact beyond their mere immediate needs, discussing in some depth topics such as leisure activities, professional goals and personal taste; skills in oral presentation will begin to solidify: within limits, students will sustain a general conversation and be understood. Narrative skills are limited but begin to emerge. Students will be able to write short letters and short paragraphs and show command of simple sentence syntax.
	Linguistic structures: students will be familiar with increasingly complex grammatical content, such as indirect and combined pronouns, future tense, conditional and subjunctive modes.
	Expected Learning Outcomes (ELO)
Desired
Outcomes	Students will:  use only target language to negotiate meaning in class;  demonstrate the ability to understand and tell past events framing them in the appropriate timeline;  demonstrate ability to handle various communicative functions, such as expressing and comparing preferences and experiences on various topics (sports, music, work and food);

- express opinions, needs and wants, formulate simple hypotheses;
- demonstrate knowledge of grammatical structures (particularly of the pronominal system) in periodic written tests and exams and appreciate the difference between tenses;
- design an oral presentation and perform it in class to demonstrate achievements in monodirectional communication;
- compile textual assignments involving prose production, such as summaries and short essays on a given topic.

Specific learning outcomes are indicated below in the learning progression of the detailed weekly syllabus.

Assessment Components

Grade Breakdown:
Task 25%
Quiz 10%
Attendance 10%
Participation & Homework 20%
Midterm 15%
Final 20%

Failure to submit or fulfill any required course component results in failure of the class.

Grade A

Assessment Expectations

The Desired Outcomes are fully reached and supported by the results of the various tests (Quiz, Task, Presentation, Portfolio, Written and/or Oral Exams), which demonstrate that the student has acquired excellent linguistic comprehension, production and interaction for the determined level of competence. The student has furthermore manifested by his/her active and constructive behavior in class and in homework a profound commitment to going beyond the objectives of the course.

Grade B

The Desired Outcomes are reached completely and the results of the various tests (Quiz, Task, Presentation, Portfolio, Written and/or Oral Exams) demonstrate that the student has acquired a good linguistic comprehension, production and interaction for the determined competences. The student has furthermore manifested by his/her active participation in class and in homework a serious commitment to fully reaching the objectives of the course.

Grade C

The Desired Outcomes are reached in a satisfactory way and the results of the various tests (Quiz, Task, Presentation, Portfolio, Written and/or Oral Exams) demonstrate that the student has acquired an acceptable level of linguistic comprehension, production and interaction for the determined competences. The student has furthermore manifested by his/her positive behavior in class and in homework a satisfactory commitment to reaching the objectives of the course.

Grade D

The Desired Outcomes are reached to a degree that is barely sufficient to pass the course; the results of the various tests (Quiz, Task, Presentation, Portfolio, Written and/or Oral Exams) demonstrate that the student has acquired only a partial linguistic comprehension, production and interaction for the determined competences. The student has furthermore manifested by his/her behavior in class and in homework – only sporadically positive –a scarce commitment to reaching positive results.

Grade F

The Desired Outcomes are not reached in a sufficient way and the results of the various tests (Quiz, Task, Presentation, Portfolio, Written and/or Oral Exams) demonstrate that the student has not acquired the linguistic comprehension, production and interaction at a sufficient level for the determined competences. The student has furthermore failed to demonstrate by his/her behavior in class and in homework – inconsistent and often unfocused –a commitment to reaching the objectives of the course.

Late Submission of All course work must be submitted on time, in class on the date specified on the syllabus. Work To request an extension on a deadline for an assignment, students must speak to the professor one week prior to the due date. To receive an incomplete for a course at the end of the semester, two weeks before final exams, both the student and the faculty member must meet with the Assistant Director of Academic Affairs to review the request and if granted, they must both sign an Incomplete Contract detailing the terms for completing missing coursework. Plagiarism Policy PLAGIARISM WILL NOT BE TOLERATED IN ANY FORM: The presentation of another person's words, ideas, judgment, images or data as though they were your own, whether intentionally or unintentionally, constitutes an act of plagiarism. In the event of suspected or confirmed cases of plagiarism, the faculty member will consult first with the Assistant Director for Academic Affairs as definitions and procedures vary from school to school. ### IMPORTANT ITALIAN CLASS RULES

- Please remember that you are in Florence to learn the Italian language and culture, so Italian will be spoken in class at all times.
- Coming prepared to class having done the assignments, making an effort to constantly speak Italian, asking questions, participating in all activities with a positive attitude, are all criteria in assessing your own class participation. For our detailed policy, please check the enclosed Grading Class Participation.
- Relying on used textbooks with marked answers is considered a matter of academic honesty and will be regarded by your instructor as cheating negatively affecting your grade.
- All Tests will be taken as scheduled.
- Examinations may be anticipated or made up only with the permission of the Office of Academic Support, Villa Ulivi.
- Personal travel arrangements will never constitute a satisfactory excuse for requesting an early or make-up exam.
