CHANGE OF STATUS: F-2 DEPENDENT TO F-1 STUDENT

What is a Change of Status?

A change of status is a change in one's primary purpose for being in the U.S. There are two ways to change one's immigration status. One way is to travel home or outside the U.S., apply for a new visa at a U.S. Consulate, and then re-enter the U.S. in the new status. The other way is to submit a change-of-status application to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS") while remaining in the U.S. The USCIS reviews applications for changes of status based on the applicant's ability to document and justify a change of primary purpose for being in the U.S. since having arrived in the U.S.

Am I eligible to apply for a change of status from F-2 to F-1?

To be eligible for a change of status to F-1, you must have maintained and currently be in lawful status as an F-2, be admitted to a degree program at UB and have received a new I-20. Your current status should also be valid until the program start date on your I-20.

If you are no longer in F-2 status or your F-2 status will end more than 30 days before the program start date on your I-20, you cannot apply for a change of status inside the U.S. Instead, you will have to change your status by traveling outside the U.S., applying for an F-1 visa and entering the U.S. as an F-1 student.

How do I obtain an I-20?

At the time of admission to a degree program at UB, the Office of International Admissions will issue your I-20. The documents required will be explained as part of the admissions process.

How do I change my status by traveling?

1. Obtain an "initial" I-20. During your application to UB, please indicate that you plan to change your status by traveling. You will then be issued an "initial" I-20.
2. Pay the SEVIS Fee. For more information on how to pay the SEVIS Fee, visit www.buffalo.edu/intlservices/f1.html#sevis. Note: You must bring the SEVIS fee payment receipt with you to the U.S. Consulate where you will apply for an F-1 visa.
3. Prepare additional supporting documentation to be used during the visa interview. For more information on these requirements, visit www.buffalo.edu/intlservices/visa2.html.
4. After receiving your F-1 visa stamp, re-enter the U.S. using the I-20 and F-1 visa stamp. Submit copies of these documents to ISSS upon your arrival.

How do I apply for a change of status inside the U.S. from F-2 to F-1?

1. Obtain a “change of status” I-20.
2. Pay the SEVIS fee. Please read “The SEVIS Fee Requirement” handout at www.buffalo.edu/intlservices/f1.html#sevis for more information on how to pay the fee.
3. Submit the following to the USCIS:
  - Application fee of $290. This should be a check payable to “USCIS”. Write your 11-digit “admission number” from your I-94 card on the front of the check or money order.
  - A cover letter from you addressed to the USCIS, requesting a change of status from F-2 dependent to F-1, and explaining your circumstances. Include the reasons why you entered the U.S. as an F-2 dependent, why and how your intentions changed after your arrival in the U.S. and any other information relevant to your decision to study in the U.S. Explain as well how this education will help you when you return to your home country.
  - Form I-539 “Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status” (Please use the fillable form available at www.buffalo.edu/intlservices/documents/i-539\_expires2012.0229\_001.pdf)
  - A copy of your SEVIS fee receipt verifying that you have paid the SEVIS fee
  - Your original “change of status I-20”. Please sign your I-20 on Page 1.
  - Photocopies of the financial documentation you submitted when you requested an I-20.
  - Photocopy of the front and back of your Form I-94 (small, white card) with a legible date stamp
  - Photocopy of your passport biographic / picture pages
  - Photocopy of your U.S. visa stamp
  - Photocopies of your spouse’s/parent’s F-1 documents (pages 1 and 3 of I-20, biographic / picture page of passport, visa, I-94 card)

We recommend that you schedule an appointment with an International Student Advisor to review your completed application before submitting it to the USCIS.

How long will processing at the USCIS take?

Estimated processing time is 3-6 months. After the USCIS receives your application, it will mail you a Form I-797 Notice of Receipt with your assigned case number. You can check the status of your application online by following the directions on the form.

When you receive a response from the USCIS, you must report the outcome to International Student and Scholar Services. If your application is approved, send or bring a photocopy of your I-20, I-797 Approval Notice and new I-94 card to ISSS, Talbert Hall 210.

Can I begin attending classes after I've submitted my application to the USCIS and while I'm awaiting a response?

You may not attend school while your F-2 to F-1 change-of-status application is pending. An IS Hold will remain on your student account preventing course registration until you provide ISSS with a copy of your F-1 Change of Status approval notice. Also, you may not begin an assistantship or engage in employment of any kind until your change of status to F-1 student has been approved.
