Thank you for your interest in applying to participate in Buffalo State VSLC Alternative Break. The Alternative Break (AB) program aims to encourage active citizenship through volunteering and community change. This alcohol and drug-free event will provide opportunities to get to know fellow classmates and community members, and grow in leadership and teamwork skills. And, it's fun!

- AB Bear Mountain Trail Project has a total cost of $125, which includes transportation, housing, meals, supplies, and recreational activities.
 - o AB Bear Mountain Trail Project will be residential and will stay 6 nights off-campus.
 - o Students will work on trail restoration and relocation on a section of the Appalachian Trail.

Information Session for AB will be:

• Thursday, April 4 12:30pm-1:30pm in Bacon 115

Important dates:

- Tuesday, April 9 Application is due with $30 deposit (this will be applied to your total cost and is non-refundable unless trip is cancelled)
- Tuesday, April 16 Mandatory Orientation for participants in Bacon 217 from 12:30pm-1:30pm
- Tuesday, April 23 Final payment is due ($95). Full or partial payments can be accepted any time before April 23, and the final payment is non-refundable. Payments must be in cash or check payable to "Buffalo State Volunteer and Service-Learning Center".

Please keep this page for your records.
