

Waiver and Release of Liability for Injury

Any individual whether student, faculty, staff or guest or otherwise who wishes to participate in intramural sports, outings and other activities sponsored by Sullivan University, Baxter Jacks Volleyball Club, Metro Parks, City of Louisville or any part of the Sullivan University System. Inc., understands that these activities require physical and emotional exertion and may involve physical contact with other participants and, in fact, place in jeopardy the physical or mental safety of said participant. In addition, the participant fully understands and agrees that the participation in any event could result in serious bodily injury or death.

The below named participant of any sport, outing or activity understands the potential risks of participating in events and agree that:

- 1) They accept and assume the risks of these activities and that the participation in any event is on a voluntary basis.

- 2) They waive and release all claims against Sullivan Colleges System, Inc., Metro Parks, Douglas Community Center, City of Louisville, its management, employees, agents, instructors and representatives for damages of every kind arising from any injury to participate during an event or transportation to and/or from an event.

- 3) They will indemnify and hold harmless the Sullivan Colleges System, Inc., Metro Parks, Douglas Community Center, City of Louisville, its management, employees, instructors, agents and representatives for damages of every kind and against the claims of other persons arising from such injury to the participant.
