HONOR CODE

More than 100 years ago, Sewanee students and faculty mutually pledged that they would live together in an honorable society. Today the Honor Code is Sewanee's most cherished tradition. All who make up the University community are expected to conduct themselves with integrity, responsibility, and with a regard for the rights, possessions, and privacy of others. Sewanee life is built upon mutual trust.

If you are accepted and choose to matriculate at Sewanee, you will be asked to sign a statement indicating that you understand and agree to the principles of our Honor Code.
