Students who receive a scholarship, fellowship, or other financial aid administered by the University of Utah are required by state law to certify that they are eligible to receive the scholarship as a U.S. citizen or a citizen of another country who is lawfully present in the U.S. If students do not know whether they are in the U.S. lawfully, they should seek the advice of an immigration attorney before filing a scholarship/financial aid application.

Prior to the disbursement of any scholarship/financial aid, the University of Utah is required by law to verify the recipient's citizenship status or lawful presence in the U.S. with the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Once the University submits a student's information to DHS for verification, this federal agency may have the legal right to share the information with other government agencies.

SIGNATURE: _____ DATE: _____

By signing this application, I certify under penalty of perjury that I am either a U.S. Citizen or a citizen of another country who is lawfully present within the U.S. I understand that my lawful presence within the U.S. will be verified through the Department of Homeland Security prior to an award of this scholarship/financial aid.

The University of Utah is fully committed to policies of nondiscrimination and equal opportunity, and vigorously pursues affirmative action in all programs, activities, and employment with regard to race, color, national origin, sex, age, and status as a person with a disability. Religion, sexual orientation, and status as a disabled veteran of the Vietnam era also are protected under nondiscrimination and equal opportunity employment policies.

Evidence of practices not consistent with these policies should be reported to The University of Utah Office of Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action, (801) 581-8365. The University of Utah Center for Disabled Student Services, (801) 581-5020 (voice or TDD), provides resources and support services for students with disabilities.
