- Describe the role you played throughout Fall 2012 training and the fall semester and what contributions have you made to staff?
- For incoming first-year students, the transition to college life can be challenging. How did you help the first-years in your residence hall with this transition? Please give specific examples.

PRESENTATION

Please prepare a ten to fifteen minute presentation, which should indicate why you should continue to be a member of the Residence Life staff for the 2013-2014 academic year. You should include:

- What has been the most rewarding part of the position for you?
- Name a strength of yours that has helped you to be successful in your role as a CA?
- What has been your biggest challenge as a CA thus far and what will you do to overcome this obstacle should you be a CA for another year?
- As we continue to review the role of a CA in partnership to the first-year experience, I ask that you contribute a few thoughts on what you believe the role should be in helping first-years to transition into Colby.
- Where would you like to live and why?

 Rising seniors with potential roommates should also include the strides you will make to connect with residents while having roommates of your own. How will you continue to create a welcoming space?

This is your opportunity to be creative, utilize your skills (personal, professional, academic) and to flaunt yourself!

Completion of the form does not guarantee a reappointment. Your reapplication only indicates that you would like to be considered.*
