

Application For Indefinite Leave To Remain In The UK On The Basis Of Long Residence And For A Biometric Immigration Document

In accordance with paragraph 34 of the Immigration Rules, this form is a specified form for the purpose of the Immigration Rules as of 6 April 2015 and must be used for all applications made on or after that date for the purposes stated on this page.

You also need the separate guidance documents listed below, which you should read before making your application:

- SET(LR) guidance notes
- UK Visas & Immigration photograph guidance

If you do not already have these documents, you can get them from our website at www.gov.uk/government/organisations/uk-visas-and-immigration

Our application forms change periodically. If you obtain this form some time before applying, please check that it is still the version which must be used when you are ready to apply.

Applications on this form may be made by post or in person at one of our Premium Service Centres. To apply in Person, you must make an appointment.

DUTY TO STATE ALL REASONS TO REMAIN IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

All your reasons or grounds for wishing to stay in the United Kingdom must be stated in this application. This requirement is being given under section 120 of the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002. If you do not tell us now of any reasons or grounds for remaining in the United Kingdom and you tell us later without good reason, you will lose any right of appeal you may have otherwise qualified for if we refuse your claim. You can use the box at the end of section 3.2.

If you are applying by post, you must send your application to the following address:

PAYMENT GUIDANCE

The Fee

There is a fee of £1500 for this application.

Applications can be made in person at a Premium Service Centre for a same day consideration of your application. There is an additional fee for this service and all fees will be taken when you book an appointment. For more details and to book an appointment please visit www.gov.uk/ukvi-premium-service-centres

Please note that your application will be rejected as invalid if you do not pay the specified fee.

The fee charged is for the processing and consideration of the application. This fee will be payable once the application form is received by the Home Office or its payment processing agent, regardless of the outcome of the application.

We cannot begin the consideration process until the payment has cleared. We allow 5 working days for payments made by cheque to clear, credit/debit cards and postal orders will clear immediately.

Who may apply with you

The immigration rules for Long Residence do not allow dependants.

How you can pay

You must pay by any of the following methods:

Cheque (postal applications only)

Postal Order (postal applications only)

Credit card - Visa (including Electron), MasterCard, or American Express (Amex)

Debit card - Delta, Maestro* (including Solo)

Banker's draft (payable to the Home Office) (postal applications only)

* Maestro - We will accept any Maestro card if you are applying in person at a Premium Service Centre but only Maestro cards issued in the UK if you are applying by post or courier.

Please note that your application is invalid if you do not pay the specified fee in full or if you pay by any method other than those specified above. You will be required to make a fresh application, and any delay in doing so may affect your appeal rights if your application is subsequently refused.

Cheques and postal orders

You must make the cheque or postal order payable to 'Home Office' and cross the cheque or postal order A/C Payee only. Please write the full name and date of birth of the applicant on the back of the cheque and/or each postal order and keep the postal order receipt(s). Please make sure that the date and the amount (words and figures) are correct and that the cheque is signed properly. Attach your cheque or postal order(s) to the front of the application form.

Completing the payment details page

To ensure that your payment is processed without any delay, please follow this guidance when completing Section 1 of this form (Payment Details).

Definitions

For the purpose of answering questions E5 to E9, the following information provides guidance on actions which may constitute war crimes, crimes against humanity, genocide, or terrorist activities.

This guidance is not exhaustive. The full definitions of war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide can be found in Schedule 8 of the International Criminal Court Act 2001 at <http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2001/17/contents> or purchased from The Stationery Office (telephone 0870 600 5522). It is the applicant's responsibility to satisfy him/herself that he/she is familiar with the definitions and can answer the questions accurately.

War crimes

Grave breaches of the Geneva Conventions committed during an armed conflict. This includes an internal armed conflict and an international armed conflict. The types of acts that may constitute a war crime include wilful killing, torture, extensive destruction of property not justified by military necessity, unlawful deportation, the intentional targeting of civilians and the taking of hostages.

Crimes against humanity

Acts committed at any time (not just during armed conflict) as part of a widespread or systematic attack, directed against any civilian population with knowledge of the attack. This would include offences such as murder, torture, rape, severe deprivation of liberty in violation of fundamental rules of international law and enforced disappearance of persons.

Genocide

Acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group.

Terrorist activities

Any act committed, or the threat of action, designed to influence a government or intimidate the public and made for the purposes of advancing a political, religious or ideological cause and that involves serious violence against a person; that may endanger another person's life; creates a serious risk to the health or safety of the public; involves serious damage to property; is designed to seriously disrupt or interfere with an electronic system.

Organisations concerned with terrorism

An organisation is concerned with terrorism if it commits or participates in acts of terrorism; prepares for terrorism; promotes or encourages terrorism (including the unlawful glorification of terrorism); or is otherwise concerned in terrorism.

Section 3 - Knowledge of Language and Life in the UK

From 28 October 2013, to qualify for indefinite leave to remain, all applicants aged 18-64 must meet a revised Knowledge of Language and Life requirement. The separate guidance notes to this form provide details of where to find further information about this requirement.

3.1 Have you obtained the following to show that you have met the knowledge of language and life in the UK requirement?

Life in the UK test pass;

and either

- A speaking and listening qualification at level B1 or above from the Secure English Language Test (SELT) list (Go to question 3.3 below); OR

- An ESOL qualification at Entry Level 3, Level 1 or Level 2 , that includes speaking and listening which has been regulated by the Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation (Ofqual). It must be listed as an ESOL qualification on the Ofqual Register and taken in England, Wales or Northern Ireland; OR

- A National Qualification in ESOL at Scottish Qualifications Framework (SCFQ) levels 4, 5 or 6, awarded by the Scottish Qualifications Authority (SQA); OR

- An academic qualification deemed by UK NARIC to meet the recognised standard of a Bachelor's or Master's degree or PhD in the United Kingdom and:
 - - UK NARIC has confirmed that the qualification was taught or researched in English; or
 - - the qualification was taught or researched in the UK or a majority English speaking country (other than Canada); OR

- You are a national of a majority English speaking country (as in the list at <https://www.gov.uk/english-language>)

3.2 . If you have not obtained one of the relevant qualifications, are you claiming exemption from this requirement because a physical or other condition prevents you from taking the Life in the UK test or doing a speaking and listening qualification in English?

Yes

No

If you are claiming exemption, you must provide a doctor's letter or similar evidence confirming that you are unable to take the test or obtain a speaking and listening qualification. An exemption will only be agreed exceptionally. If you have answered yes to this question go to Section 4.

If you have any reasons or grounds for wishing to stay in the United Kingdom which you have not already mentioned in your application you should do so now in the box below.

3.3 If you have a speaking and listening qualification in English at B1 CEFR or higher, or an equivalent level qualification, is it:

- A test that is on the Home Office list of approved tests – go to question 3.4.
- A test that is on the Ofqual register or awarded by the Scottish Qualifications Authority – go to section 4

3.4 When did you sit your English language test?

- On or after 6 April 2015 – go to question 3.5.
- Before 6 April 2015 – go to question 3.6

3.5 Please provide details of your English language test (sat on or after 6 April 2015):

Any other documents/details which support your application

If the account with the bank or utility company is in the joint names of the applicant and other people, each of those others should sign the following declaration :

The above-named person ('the applicant') has given the Home Office documentation about his or her accounts with banks or utility companies (a 'company') so that the Home Office can check that is correct. I am a joint customer with the applicant on some or all of those accounts. Information about the applicant may thus also reveal information about me.

I agree to the company giving the Home Office relevant personal data it holds about me in relation to the account. This only covers data about me as joint customer with the applicant (and not about any other accounts I hold in my sole name) and limited to what is necessary to confirm that the documentation the applicant has supplied is correct. If that documentation is not correct, the company may give the Home Office details of any inaccuracies / discrepancies in the information that the applicant has provided, and may also disclose to the Home Office the correct information that they have on record about the account.

I agree that this information may be used as part of the decision making process about the application and may, if necessary, be disclosed to a court.

Section 6 - Declarations

F. Applicant Declaration

It is mandatory for you to sign below to show you have read and understood the following declaration. If it is not complete the application will be invalid and returned to you. It must be signed by you personally and not by a representative or other person acting on your behalf. If you are under 18, your parent or legal guardian should sign on your behalf.

Declaration

I hereby apply for Indefinite Leave to Remain in the UK for myself. The information I have given in this form is complete and is true to the best of my knowledge.

The photographs I have submitted with my application are a true likeness of me.

The documents I have submitted in support of my application are complete and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

I agree to co-operate with Home Office officials, or any other person charged by the Secretary of State for the Home Office with conducting pre-issue and post-issue checks in relation to this application.

I understand that, if I do not meet the requirements for indefinite leave to remain, my application may be treated as an application for limited leave to remain and that the Secretary of State may refuse this application for limited leave to remain or reject it as invalid, where any requirement to pay an immigration health surcharge under the Immigration (Health Charge) Order 2015 is not met.

If there is a material change in my circumstances or any new information relevant to this application becomes available before it is decided, I will inform the Home Office.

I am aware that the rules and requirements for applications may change in the future and that I should not assume the current rules and requirements will continue to apply.

I agree to the Home Office using the data provided in this application in accordance with its Information Charter.

Your information may be shared with the National Health Service (NHS) in England, but this is only to help you access health services in the UK should you need to.

I accept that, in the event that I do not meet the requirements for indefinite leave, my application may also be considered as an application for limited leave to remain and understand that the Secretary of State will not grant a period of limited leave unless the requirement to pay an immigration health charge under the Immigration (Health Charge) Order 2015 has been met.

I understand that my details may in certain circumstances be passed to fraud prevention agencies to prevent and detect fraud and money laundering. I also understand that such agencies may provide the Home Office with information about me. Further details explaining when information may be passed to or from fraud prevention agencies and how that information may be used can be obtained from the Home Office website.

I understand that if I am informing the Home Office that I have changed my gender, these details may in certain circumstances be shared with other Home Office colleagues. I consent to this, where necessary and understand that this information will only be shared in limited circumstances relating to identity and security in line with Section 22 of the Gender Recognition Act. I am aware they will otherwise be treated in confidence and that my rights under the Equality Act 2010, Data Protection Act 1998 and Article 8 of the European Convention on Human Rights will be unaffected
