

Junior Public Speaking Leadership Skills Event

Objective: To develop the ability of young FFA members to competently express themselves as they assume the responsibilities of agricultural leadership.

A. Rules and Regulations

1. The event is open to all FFA members in good standing who are in their ninth or tenth grade and are regularly enrolled in agricultural education during one or both semesters of the school year and who have not placed first in a state Junior Public Speaking Leadership Skills Event.
2. Each chapter in good standing may enter one participant in the district event. If the chapter has 50 or more in-school FFA members (grades 9–12), the chapter may enter two individuals in the district event.
3. A Junior Public Speaking participant may compete in only one of the following events in a given year: Junior Parliamentary Procedure, Senior Parliamentary Procedure, or Agricultural Demonstration. They are not eligible to compete in any other speaking leadership skills or job interview events in a given year.
4. Each speech will be limited to six minutes (warning at four minutes) and not less than four minutes in length. One point will be deducted for each second overtime or undertime. A maximum of five minutes additional time will be allowed each participant to answer questions asked by the evaluators.
5. A bibliography must be included as part of the participant's manuscript, and direct quotes from any source of information must be in quotes on the manuscript and identified with the bibliography. Charts and other visual aids are prohibited.
6. The participant's use of manuscript is prohibited at the district and state event; note cards are acceptable.
7. The participant will furnish four typewritten copies of the complete manuscript including cover page and bibliography for the district and state events. The cover page must include the participant's name, chapter, and title of the speech. The copies must be brought to the district event. For state, they must be received in the State FFA Office postmarked or delivered on or before March 1.
8. Cover page and bibliography are mandatory.

B. Guide For Conducting FFA Junior Public Speaking Event

Prior to the event:

1. The order of appearance will be determined in advance of the event.
2. Hand out one of the following to each evaluator:
  - a. Junior Public Speaking rules and regulations
  - b. Official score card/Results sheets
  - c. Order of appearance roster
  - d. Manuscripts of speeches

Start event:

1. Each participant will be introduced by the individual running the event.
2. After the participant is finished, the timer will record the time and forward to the evaluators.
3. Each participant is to have a maximum of five minutes for questioning from the evaluators. These questions are to be based on the speech.

After event:

1. Each evaluator should total each participant's score and arrive at the placing. Discussion between evaluators is allowed and encouraged.
2. Ribbons may be awarded according to the guidelines on the results sheets.
3. A critique sheet should be completed for each participant.
4. Two copies of the results should be completed on the sheets provided. List name/chapter of each participant.

Event dress:

1. Each participant should wear the official FFA dress as defined in the FFA manual: Male - a white shirt, official FFA tie, dark trousers, dark socks, dark shoes, and FFA jacket. Female - a white blouse, official FFA scarf, dark skirt/slacks, dark shoes, and FFA jacket.
2. Points will be deducted for variance from official dress.
