The Educational Foundations (EdF) major is for undergraduates who are committed to social change. The purpose of the Educational Foundations (EdF) major is to prepare future professionals in education and related fields who are critical thinkers, well informed about theory and practice, and who possess the knowledge and skills that will enable them to be change agents in economically, racially, culturally, and linguistically diverse communities.

A recommendation letter from a supervisor who can speak to the applicant's commitment and experience in working with children is required for use in the process of determining admission. Applications without this recommendation form are not considered for admission.

As required by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 and the University of Oregon Student Record Policy, a student may elect to waive or not to waive the privilege of viewing this recommendation form. If the student has indicated on page 1 that she/he has waived access to this recommendation, please place the completed form in a sealed envelope with your signature across the seal. You can then return the recommendation via one of the options listed on page 2.
