Sex Trafficking Undercover Operations

Case Study

Chad Opitz is currently a Detective with the Beaverton Police Department in Beaverton, Oregon and a Task Force Officer on the Portland FBI Child Exploitation Task Force. He is a fifteen year law enforcement officer and has been a detective for the last eight. Detective Opitz is also assigned as an Investigator to the Washington County Major Crime Team.

He has worked sex trafficking related crimes since 2008, with the focus on protecting victims of child prostitution and targeting the pimps that exploit those minors. Detective Opitz has also done extensive undercover work in sex trafficking and prostitution investigations. He has also worked child pornography cases while assigned to the Portland FBI Innocent Images Task Force and spent five years assigned to the Proactive Team (street crimes) of the Beaverton Police Department.

Detective Opitz obtained his bachelor's degree in Communication Arts from George Fox University (Newberg, Oregon). He has presented at the Dallas Crimes Against Children Conference and has been an Instructor for classes put on by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC).
