PART I - INSTRUCTIONS

Listed below are six performance factors, six self-management factors, and five supervisory factors (for supervisors only) that are important in the performance of the staff member's job. Performance factors and self-management factors must be utilized for all staff members. The supervisor factors should be utilized only for staff members with supervisory responsibilities. NOTE: A selection of Unacceptable (1), Needs Improvement (2) or Superior (5) requires comments.

Distribution Instructions:

- 1. Return the original form to the Office of Human Resources
- 2. Maintain one copy for departmental records (Optional).
- 3. Give one copy to the employee.

Marking Instructions: The supervisor should indicate the staff member's performance by circling or checking the appropriate level of performance.

The following evaluation scale guide is being provided to assist the evaluator in assigning the most appropriate measurement of the staff member's performance factors, self-management factors, and supervisory factors.

- 1 Unacceptable - Consistently fails to meet job requirements; performance clearly below minimum standards and requirements. Immediate improvement required to maintain employment. (Requires comments)
- 2 Needs Improvement Occasionally fails to meet job requirements; performance must improve to meet expectations of position. (Requires comments)
- 3 Meets expectations – Able to perform all job duties satisfactorily. Normal guidance and supervision are required.
- 4 Exceeds expectations Frequently exceeds job requirements; all or most planned objectives were achieved above the established standards and accomplishments were made in unexpected areas as well.
- 5 Superior – Consistently exceeds job requirements; this is the highest level of performance that can be attained. (Requires comments)
