

Calculator Loan Program Application Form

Terms and Conditions: The Calculator Loan Program is on a first come, first serve basis with preference given to students who are enrolled in Math 110. Applications are due to Lindsay Noisom in Jones 142 by 5pm on the second Friday of the semester.

The Calculator Loan Program will charge your student account $20 for the semester. If you fail to return the calculator on the day of your final exam to your professor in the condition it was given to you (or return it to your professor if you should withdraw from the course) you will be charged an additional $80.

You are responsible for providing batteries for your calculator. If the calculator breaks, you are responsible for contacting the Calculator Coordinator immediately.
