

Performance Appraisal

- 90-day Evaluation
- 180-day Evaluation
- Annual Evaluation

PURPOSE

The purpose of any performance appraisal program is employee development. The value of performance appraisal is in the process of communication between supervisor and employee and not merely in the completion of the form.

Specific objectives of the Performance Appraisal program are-

- to increase professional development, skill level and performance of each employee;
- to strengthen working relationships between supervisor and employee;
- to clarify job duties and responsibilities;
- to establish mutually understood standards for measuring performance and
- to aid in promotion, retention and salary decisions.

PREPARATION

For the reviewer: Review the appraisal guidelines manual. Complete all three parts of this performance appraisal in advance of your conference with the employee and be prepared to discuss it in detail.

For the employee being reviewed: One week prior to your review, you will be given a blank appraisal form. Your completion of this form will serve as a self-evaluation and acquaint you with the performance factors to be evaluated.

THE APPRAISAL FORM

- Section I Appraisal Factors (Select the most appropriate statement [choose ONLY one])
- Section II Administrative/Professional Personnel Only. (Only those employees with administrative responsibilities should be reviewed in this section)
- Section III Review Summary Sheet (includes overall summary and appropriate signatures)
