Answering Pope Francis' Call: Becoming a Church of Mercy

Our church is a church of word, worship, and service. As catechists and educators, we focus on the ministry of the word, sharing our beliefs and faith life with others. We have seen an updating of the Mass and our ways of worshipping God. Now it is time to look at how we serve in the name of Christ, especially the poor and most vulnerable.

Pope Francis is inviting us to become a compassionate church, a church of mercy, caring for one another as Jesus taught. Our invitation is not so much about doing as about being the faith-filled person Jesus calls us to be. Please join us as we look at the teaching of Pope Francis, reflect on our own faith journey, and talk about skills to bring this invitation to the people with whom we work.

CONFERENCE SESSIONS

Friday, June 26, 2015

9-9:30 a.m. Welcome and Prayer

Session I—9:30 a.m.-12:15 p.m.

The Francis Effect

Our world has been touched by the amazing grace and vision of a pope called Francis. His choice of a name showed us that caring for God's poor and little ones would be his legacy. This session will look at the papacy of Pope Francis, the legacy of St. Francis of Assisi, and how their vision of the Gospel touches our lives.

Session II—1:15-4:15 p.m.

Encounter With Christ

What matters is Jesus. Pope Francis has said, "Let us remember that in our lives as Christians, God always waits for us." Our primary task as disciples is to focus on our relationship with Christ so that we can radiate our love for Christ. This session will invite us to look at our lives as the place where Jesus touches our hearts.

Saturday, June 27, 2015

9-9:15 a.m. Prayer

Session III—9:15 a.m.-12:15 p.m.

The Evangelizing Church

We have been called to the new evangelization. Pope Francis calls us also to be "revolutionaries" bringing the grace of God to those around us. This session will focus on what it means to be evangelizers and revolutionaries, sharing our lives and faith with those around us. We will look at practical ideas for how our schools and parishes are welcoming and also evangelizing.

Session IV—

1:15-4:15 p.m.

A Church of Mercy

Pope Francis asks us if we are a Church that welcomes saints and sinners alike, offering courage and love to all seekers. Following Jesus' great commission to love one another we are sent into the world to bring the good news to the poor and the lonely, to those longing for meaning and comfort. This session will focus on our mission to bring the kingdom of God to all of our brothers and sisters.

Both Friday and Saturday

12:15-1:15 p.m. Light lunch provided.

Visit ¡VIVA! book exhibit.

PRESENTER
