Course Scheduling Preferences

In addition to the Core Curriculum courses and freshman level courses required for your preferred area of study, you may choose an additional class from history, religious studies, literature or music.

Please indicate first and second preferences by writing a 1 or 2 next to chosen areas. This will aid your advisor in helping you select one additional class.

____ History ____ Religious Studies ____ Literature ____ Music

Other Considerations

To better assist you and your advisor in planning a course schedule, please answer the following questions.

1. Are you expecting to earn credit in Advanced Placement exams? Yes No

If yes, please indicate which AP tests you will be taking _____

2. Will you be living in Seton Residence Hall? Yes No

3. Will you be participating in intercollegiate sports? Yes No

If yes, please list the athletic team(s) _____

4. Will you be a member of the drumline, lab band or the symphonic band? Yes No

5. Are there other special considerations we need to know about you before planning your first semester schedule?
For example, driving time, work schedule, etc. If yes, please describe:

Your high school transcript and your writing assessment will be evaluated for possible placement in ENG 096 Foundations of Writing. Your high school transcript and your COMPASS score will be evaluated for placement in mathematics courses. We cannot guarantee all of your preferences, but will do our best to accommodate your requests.

I understand that my schedule will be assigned based on placement, preferences and course availability.
