

QUIZ 2:
TYPES OF WATERING SYSTEMS

Name: _____

Date: _____

Hour: _____

Topic # 2155

Types of Watering Systems
Created by: Tracey Hoffman

1. Define subirrigation:

2. Which of the following is not a disadvantage of overhead sprinklers & misting systems:
  - A. Sends out large droplets of water
  - B. Tendency to waste water
  - C. Wets the foliage
  - D. Water does not wet soil if plant has a full canopy

3. T/F The drip system is the most efficient watering system

4. T/F Capillary mats are not a form of subirrigation.

5. List 3 of the 6 advantages to automated watering systems.
  - A.
  - B.
  - C.

6. Which of the following methods of irrigation uses weighted head or sticks to deliver water to the media?
  - A. Drip system
  - B. Capillary mats
  - C. Ebb and Flo tables
  - D. Hand-held hose
  - E. Chpaen or spaghetti

7. List a disadvantage of subirrigation. Why?

8. What type of watering system would be used for cuttings?

9. What two things need to be included in an automatic watering system?

A.

B.

10. T/F It is not necessary to flush a water and fertilizer system on a regular basis.