

WESTERN EQUESTRIAN PROGRAM – PARTICIPANT CONSENT FORM

By signing this consent form, participants in the Western Equestrian Program acknowledge the receipt of the information in this packet. This form certifies that the student has read and understood the terms outline in this information packet, and failure to comply with any of the terms and conditions may result in disciplinary action. Disciplinary action includes, but is not limited to:

- Verbal and/or written warning
- Additional barn chores
- Loss of riding privileges
- Expulsion from the equestrian program

Please be sure to sign and return all necessary paperwork upon completion. Failure to complete and return necessary documentation may result in the loss of your space in the equestrian program.

I, _____, have read the contents of this packet. Furthermore, I understand and agree to all terms and conditions. I understand that failure to comply with the farm rules and University policy may result in disciplinary action.

Signature: _____ Name (print): _____

Date: _____

Parent or Guardian signature: _____

(if student is under age 18 when entering the program)

Please note: This is not a commitment to come to The University of Findlay, nor does it guarantee a place in our program. In order to reserve your place in our equestrian program, you must first send the $100.00 enrollment deposit to the Admissions Office. This document simply acknowledges that you understand the terms and conditions of our program.

Return to:

The University of Findlay
Incoming Freshmen Papers
14700 U.S. Route 68
Findlay, Ohio 45840