

We have some exciting news! We are remodeling and expanding our Northside office at 1519 N Spring St. The project will add 400 square feet to the existing building with office space for a commercial lender, a trust and investment advisor and a personal banker. Construction has begun with an anticipated completion date in April 2015. We will make every effort to keep the lobby and drive thru open during the construction as much as possible.

Church Basement Ladies 5 ~ Schauer Center, Hartford

The Last (Potluck) Supper

Friday, March 27, 2015

It is 1979, the day of the church's Centennial Celebration, and parishioners gather to share hot dishes and stories from the last 100 years. As they time-jump through a century, the ladies share a rib-tickling panorama of changes in the kitchen, without spilling a drop of their egg coffee! Once again, the ladies serve up a helping of hilarity and some new, toe-tapping musical numbers in the final installment of the Church Basement Ladies.

Lunch (included) at the Mineshaft in Hartford

Cost per person: $ 75.00

Depart time: 11:00 am Approx. return time: 5:15 pm

On The Go Club

Is This Heaven? No, It's Iowa!

Field of Dreams/Pella Tulip Time/Amana Colonies
3 Days • May 8 - 10, 2015

Day 1, Friday

This morning we head to Dyersville, IA, to visit the Field of Dreams movie site. In 1988, the Lansing Family Farm exchanged its humble roots for a destiny very few could have imagined. We take a look at a moment in time, a place in cinematic history, a mecca for anyone longing to be a part of something greater than themselves, inching toward a destiny that has no limits.

Our afternoon travels take us to Pella, IA, arriving in time for an authentic Dutch Dinner Show featuring a traditional Dutch meal with entertainment by the Dutch Family Singers or Dutchesses. We overnight in Pella. D

Day 2, Saturday

This morning a local speler (guide) will board the motorcoach for a Pella City Tour. In the afternoon the fun continues as we make our way to the Grandstand for their afternoon show which features Dutch dancing, singing, a Parade of Provinces, a cheese market demo and more. Following the show, we remain in our seats which offer the perfect view of the parade. This evening we enjoy free time to discover what else this exciting festival has to offer. Options include: Dutch Craft Market, Molengracht Market, Dutch Masters Antique Auto Display, Tractor Rodeo, Quilt Show, musical performances and more. B, L

Day 3, Sunday

Our journey home would not be complete without a visit to the Amana Colonies which have been a treasure on the Iowa prairie for over 150 years. The seven villages of the Amana Colonies offer visitors the opportunity to step back from today's busy pace, to relish in the comfort of locally crafted foods, beer and wine, furniture, art and more. The Colonies offer something for everyone with their unique history and culture that is not found anywhere else in the world.

Our final stop is at the Ox Yolk Inn for a family-style lunch before we head home, arriving in the early evening. B, L

Madison Gardens & Greenhouses Thursday, May 28, 2015

Our travels take us to the Madison area to enjoy the eclectic global assortment of specimens at the UW Botany Greenhouse. Dr. Mo Fayyaz knows absolutely everything about each plant species in this special place and will be your host at the greenhouse. Our next stop will be the Allen Centennial Gardens. Surrounding a beautiful Victorian house on the UW campus, this 2.5 acre outdoor garden is stunning in all seasons and will be especially lovely in late spring.

Following our self guided tour, we enjoy lunch at Der Rathskeller, also on the UW campus. For our final stop, we travel north to Waunakee to an establishment that claims the Midwest's largest selection of perennials, hostas and ornamental grasses along with dozens of other plant species.

Orchids Garden Centre and Nursery features 14 greenhouses and peaceful, planted display gardens. Treat yourself to a purchase that will bring beauty to your garden year after year.
