

2016 D&I APPLICATION

Complete this application to apply for scholarships, stipends, and fellowships. Submit with a Personal Statement, an OSB Statement, and a resumé including community activities. Community activities can include membership and activities in student associations, community organizations, or any efforts which benefit others. There are separate applications for the Diversity Bar Examination Grants, the Judicial Mentorship Program, the LSAT Scholarship, and the OLIO Program.

NOTE: If you need more space to answer any of these questions, please attach a separate page at the end of the application.

Please attest to the following statements with your initials:
For my own records and future reference, I acknowledge that I retained a copy of my submitted D&I application materials.
I have dated each sheet in my application materials (including statements and attachments) with the submission date. If I update any document, I will mark such document with the new submission date.
In reviewing applications, the Diversity & Inclusion Department of the Oregon State Bar will give preference to those applicants who intend to practice law in Oregon and who will help the Bar and Diversity & Inclusion Department achieve their mission. If circumstances are such that students receiving D&I resources and services do not become OSB members, the bar hopes to learn from the students' experiences. Therefore, the D&I may require an Exit Process which includes a written evaluation and/or phone interview with these students. If necessary, the D&I may need to obtain forwarding address/phone number or permanent address/phone number from the respective law school. In the event of that need, I authorize my law school to release my forwarding address/phone number and permanent address/phone number to the OSB Diversity & Inclusion Department.	n a
I certify that to the best of my knowledge the information contained in these application materials is complete and accurate.
