ACTIVITY/EVENT ACCEPTANCE

All participants (adult and youth) must observe the following guidelines for conduct including overnight stays.

1. Participate fully in all sessions.
2. The student is responsible for his or her own actions and behavior. Show respect for property and facilities used during the activity and assume financial responsibility for any damage they cause.
3. The student is responsible for following all S & T policies. If the student breaks or violates a policy, his or her parent/guardian will be contacted and the student will have to vacate the residence hall/campus facilities. It is the student's responsibility to inquire if the student is unsure about a policy. In this regard, the student expressly acknowledges that such policies have been provided and explained to the student. All internet use is subject to federal and state laws, as well as UM System policy and University Acceptable Use Policy. You are not allowed to visit inappropriate sites or download anything unauthorized
4. The student will be respectful of the dorm and classrooms and his or her roommate's and other classmates' property.
5. The University does not tolerate the possession, use or distribution of alcohol or drugs which are illegal under state or federal law, or any other controlled substance for which the student does not possess a valid prescription from a licensed physician.
6. Campers and visiting students under 18 years of age are not allowed to buy, possess, distribute or use any kind of tobacco product.
7. It is understood that if the student violates any of the rules while visiting S & T and is asked to leave, the student may be denied the opportunity to attend future University programs or functions.
8. I hereby consent to any publicity, including the use of my name and likeness, in connection with my participation in the camp at S&T.

Overnight Stays

As a participant in the pre-college summer camp at S & T, unless the student and/or his/her parent or guardian chooses participation as a day camper only, the student desires to participate in overnight stays in the University residence hall and all students will participate in classes held on the campus facilities.

This activity may include, but is not limited to, staying in the residence hall, attending classes and functions, participating in all University activities and programs, eating in assigned dining halls and other restaurants as scheduled.

1. The student is responsible for making arrangements to get his or her personal property out of the residence hall and classrooms prior to departure at the end of the summer camps.
2. Each student must follow curfew times as well as policies for checking in and out of the building.
3. Guests cannot visit floors/wings of the opposite sex.
4. The student acknowledges that he or she may only spend the night in the residence hall room designated by S & T. For the purposes of this policy, this means the student must be in his or her assigned room between the hours of 11 p.m. and 6 a.m. except for emergencies, to use the bathroom facilities or with the permission of the summer camp staff.
5. Loud television or stereos, yelling, slamming doors, running or any other activity that is not conducive to studying is prohibited in the residence halls and classroom facilities. In this regard, S & T reserves the sole discretion to determine what conduct or activity is not conducive to the summer camp and associated activities.

III. Indemnification and Hold Harmless

The student and the student's parent, guardian or custodian recognizes that S & T is not the insurer of the student's health or safety, and has no duty to control third parties. The student and the student's parent, guardian or custodian fully accept and understand that there are potential dangers and risks to which the student may be exposed by participating in the S & T summer programs.

The student and the student's parent, guardian or custodian therefore agree to assume all of the potential risks and dangers, whether or not foreseeable, in any way associated with the student's participation in this S & T summer camp (including without limitation any and all medical expenses incurred resulting from any illness or injury to the participating student) and associated activities. In consideration of, and in return for the services, facilities, and other assistance provided to the student by S & T summer camp and related activities, the student and the student's parent, guardian or custodian hereby release and agree to hold harmless S & T (and its board of trustees, officers, employees, servants and agents) from any and all liabilities, claims, and actions that may arise from injury or harm to the student or to any third-party, from the student's death or that of any third party proximately caused by the student, or from damage or loss to the student's or any third-party's property in connection with this S & T summer camp or associated activities. The student and the student's parent, guardian or custodian understand that this Agreement and Release covers liability, claims and actions caused entirely or in part by any acts or failure to act of S & T (or its board of trustees, officers, employees, or agents), including but not limited to the alleged or actual negligence, mistake or failure to supervise by S & T.

The student and the student's parent, guardian or custodian agree and understand that this Agreement and Release means I am giving up, among other things, the right to sue S & T, its board of trustees, officers, employees, servants or agents for injuries, damages or losses that the student or the student's parent, guardian or custodian may incur. The student and the student's parent, guardian or custodian also understand that this Agreement and Release binds the student and the student's parent, guardian or custodian, any non-custodial parent, heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

The student and the student's parent, guardian or custodian has read and signed this document. The student and the student's parent, guardian or custodian understands that if this document is not signed and submitted, the student will not be permitted to participate in S & T summer camps. The student and the student's parent, guardian or custodian acknowledge that they have read this entire Agreement and Release, that they fully understand it, and that they agree to be legally bound by it. They also agree that this represents the entire agreement and that there are no other oral or written promises or representations which in any way modify its terms.

My signature below indicates that I have had sufficient opportunity to read this entire document, that I have read it, and that I understand how it affects my legal rights. I agree to be bound by its terms.

If participant is less than 18 years of age:

I hereby declare that I am the parent or legal guardian of the named participant and I consent to the participant's participation in this program. In the event of sudden illness, accident, or injury which may occur while my child or ward is engaged in this activity (program), when neither the parents nor guardians can be contacted, I hereby give my consent for emergency medical treatment as necessary under the circumstances to any medical care provider licensed under the laws of the State of Missouri.
