

ON-SITE CONSULTATION FOR BAR ASSOCIATIONS
OFFICE OF BAR RELATIONS OUTREACH
THE STATE BAR OF CALIFORNIA

In Person Tailored Meetings Available to Local, Minority, Specialty and Women's Bar Associations

We all know that email seems to be the choice of communication these days. The Office of Bar Relations recognizes the value of on-site visits and encourages you to schedule a visit with us. On-site visits provide free, personalized service to bar leaders and staff for all of California's bar associations.

An On-Site Visit Offers Bar Associations:

Program and Management Assistance

Maybe you're considering implementing a new program to benefit sole and small firm practitioners, or you'd like to restructure your board retreat or are evaluating your governance structure. The Bar Relations Outreach Director will come prepared to discuss issues or concerns based upon your request. Information would be provided about the activities of other comparably sized bars and about the State Bar of California resources available to your association.

An Exchange of Information

By sharing what you've learned in developing a successful project, you'll be assisting other bar executives who call upon the Office of Bar Relations Outreach when they need direction in implementing similar programs. The State Bar is always interested in learning about the successful and effective projects and programs of California's local bars. It's an opportunity to "blow your horn."

One Resource at the State Bar

Following the visit, the Office of Bar Relations Outreach will remain the bar associations' primary contact when its necessary to contact the State Bar. This office can help you get answers more quickly and efficiently. If this office can't answer your questions, it will identify the person who can.
