

The Vera Kochanowsky Piano Competition 2014

...will take place on Saturday, May 10th (1:00 pm) at the University Baptist and Brethren Church, 411 South Burrowes St., State College, PA. The piano to be used is a Steinway grand.

Contestants in grades 7 to 11 are invited to perform a piano recital between twelve and twenty minutes in length—the program may consist of one or more pieces. The winner will receive a $400 scholarship award to be used for furthering his/her musical education.

Candidates should apply (up to May 7th) by contacting Carol Pharo at The Music Academy: (814) 238-3451, info@scmusicacademy.org and academyperformingarts@gmail.com. A registration form, to be signed by the candidate and his/her teacher, is available at our website, www.scmusicacademy.org. Please deliver a hard-copy of the form to Carol Pharo at The Music Academy, 3091 Enterprise Dr., Bldg. D, State College, PA 16801.

Each contestant will be assigned a place in the program. A short warm-up time will be scheduled between 9:00 am and 12:00 pm on the morning of Saturday, May 10th, and longer practice sessions will be scheduled during the afternoon and evening of Friday, May 9th.

Each student should supply three copies of his/her entire recital repertoire for each judge. Photocopies must be placed in plastic sheets in the correct order in a binder. No loose photocopies, please. These are, obviously, not in the interest of the candidate being judged. Please show your three completed binders, and/or books to Carol Pharo on the morning of May 10th (or earlier).

As in previous years we anticipate a stunning demonstration of piano talent from all of our young musicians at the Vera Kochanowsky Piano Competition 2014!

The Vera Kochanowsky Scholarship Award for Pianists

The criteria for use and granting of the Vera Kochanowsky Scholarship Award shall be as follows. All young pianists in the state of Pennsylvania are eligible. It is not necessary to be enrolled as a Music Academy student:

1. The student shall be a pianist in school grades seven through eleven and shall show musical ability in the piano field.
2. The granting of the award shall be based on musical talent and not on need.
3. A competition will be held as a recital that is open to the public and will determine which student shall receive the award. Preferably, the competition will be held during the first week in May, but may be held later in May or during the month of June within the same school year.
4. The student's present instructor will nominate the student entering the competition. Each candidate must obtain an application form from his or her instructor or The Music Academy office. The completed application form must be signed by both the student entering the competition and his or her instructor and submitted to The Music Academy office.
5. The student shall perform at least two contrasting movements from a sonata or at least two pieces or movements of pieces that demonstrate contrasting character and style. The works will be chosen from the classic, baroque, romantic, or contemporary repertoire. If the piece chosen is a concerto, then an accompanist will be allowed to play an orchestral reduction. There will be a maximum of 20 minutes and a minimum of 8 minutes allowed for each student competing.
6. The judges for the competition shall consist of two Music Academy piano faculty and one non-piano faculty.
7. The students competing shall be judged on a one-to-five scale in the areas of stage presence, interpretation, technique, and difficulty of piece/s performed. The student with the highest overall score will win the award. The award will be presented to the winning student at the end of the competition. In the event of a tie, the award will be equally divided.
8. The award will be used for future piano study.
9. The award will be given every other school year, and no student may win the award twice in succession.

Congratulations to the winners of the Vera Kochanowsky Award Competition 2012:

First place: Luisa Mei Bressan -- grade 8
--a student of Dea Baba

Honorable Mention: Alicia Lai -- grade 10
--a student of Dea Baba
