

Sample Letter — Invitation to Nominate

Dear _____:

Building Connections: Community Leadership program — WHAT AN EXPERIENCE! Remember the people you met and the things you learned? Remember how much fun it was?

Applications for Class (number) will be available to the public (date). As a distinguished alumnus, you are receiving an advanced copy of the application. This class will run from (date) and includes some exciting changes from previous years.

To ensure that Building Connections continues to have strong representation from all areas of our community, we need your help. Do you know someone who might enjoy the experience of learning about our community and the leadership opportunities we have? Please take a moment to give the enclosed application and brochure to someone you think has potential to contribute leadership skills in our community, or to someone who is already active and would make a great class member.

Keep the tradition going strong by helping us recruit top quality leaders for this program. If you need additional information, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Sample Letter — You've Been Selected

Dear Name:

Congratulations on your selection to Building Connections: Community Leadership Class XII!

You have already demonstrated the leadership qualities this program seeks to build in its participants; this is evident from your application. It is the hope of Texas Cooperative Extension that the Building Connections: Community Leadership class will help you further develop these skills and provide a unique learning experience through both the classroom and workshop environments.

Most of the sessions will be informal and are designed to encourage interaction among participants and faculty. We urge you to take full advantage of the frequent opportunities for discussion to explore the future of our community and your role in shaping that future.

Above all, we hope that Building Connections proves to be a meaningful and enjoyable experience for you.

Sincerely,

Sample Letter — Not Selected

Dear Name:

Thank you for applying for the Building Connections: Community Leadership program sponsored by Texas Cooperative Extension in (county name) County.

The record number of qualified applicants far exceeded the positions available this year. Therefore, the task of selecting participants for the program was not an easy matter for the selection committee. I regret to inform you that you were not selected for the Building Connections: Community Leadership program this year. At the same time, I want to express our appreciation for your interest and strongly urge you to consider applying for the next program. Many of the participants who were selected this year have applied more than once.

Again, thank you for your interest and we hope you will submit your application again for the next program. We encourage you to continue your support and leadership activities for the ongoing progress of the community.

Sincerely,
