Home Inventory Worksheet

The Prattville Police Department suggests that citizens take time to document certain information that could be useful to investigators should your property be stolen.

How to use this form: go throughout your residence and inventory your items using this form. Be as descriptive as possible. If you take a picture of your items, print them out and attach them to the inventory. On the picture, write down what is pictured. If you are using a digital copy of this form, you can save the pictures on removable media, such as a thumb drive or a CD, along with this form. This form can be helpful to investigators in identifying items that have been stolen from your residence or vehicle.
