HISPANICS IN THE SOUTHWEST: Immigration, Education, Health, and Public Policy

April 26 – 28, 2007
Texas Tech University
Lubbock, Texas

Hosted by: Texas Tech University College of Education Bilingual Education and Diversity Studies Program; The Texas Tech Center for the Southwest

The Texas Tech University Center for the Southwest and the College of Education Bilingual Education and Diversity Studies Program, through the support of the Helen Devitt Jones Foundation, have collaborated to present a conference on the topic of Hispanics in the Southwest. Hispanics have been a major part of the American southwest for more than five hundred years and a diverse set of ideas and thoughts have emerged as a result of their presence. This conference will offer a series of academic papers, presentations, and discussions on topics relating to the areas of immigration, education, health, and public policy. Nationally known experts from each field will keynote and lead the presentations within each area.

CONFERENCE DATES:

Thursday, April 26, 2007 – 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Friday, April 27, 8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Saturday, April 28, 2007, 8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
