

TEACHING TOWARD A MORE TOLERANT COMMUNITY

Presenter: Gloria Glantz
Place: Teacher Center
Dates: Saturdays, March 21 and March 28, 2009
Time: 8:30 am – 12:30 pm
Credit: One half inservice credit

This is an interactive workshop designed to give teachers hands-on activities they can use with students to promote tolerance and acceptance of various cultures.

The course offers readings, poetry, role-plays, and other activities that can be adapted to any grade level.

Topics addressed include: stereotyping, prejudice, the impact of advertising, and “-isms such as ageism, ableism, sexism, racism and heroism (who are our heroes).

The course is appropriate for supervisors, teachers, teacher assistants and aides. Each participant receives a folder of materials for classroom use.

If you wish to participate in this course, please complete the form and return it to the Teacher Center by Friday, March 6, 2009.

Teaching Toward a More Tolerant Community

Name _____ School _____ Grade _____

Home Phone # _____

The enclosed $10 registration fee payable to the Port Washington Teachers Association Scholarship Fund will be refunded upon request. Check only – no cash.

Please return check to me _____ Please forward check to Scholarship Fund _____