

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

READ- TAC- TOE: Charlotte's Web

Directions: Below is a tic-tac-toe board with different reading comprehension activities. You are to make a "TIC TAC TOE" (three activities in a row) by choosing three of the options going either vertically, horizontally, or diagonally on the chart (note: they can only go those three directions). You can work in groups or alone depending on which categories you decide to select. These activities will test your knowledge and comprehension of Charlotte's Web by E.B. White, which was read aloud in class. Activities can be worked on in assigned class time, but outside of that class work is encouraged. Have fun and get creative!

Vocabulary:

Write the definition for each vocabulary word listen on the Charlotte's Web vocabulary sheet
Hint: look in the story for context clues!

Items in the Classroom:

Look for items in the classroom (nouns) that are talked about in the novel.
Example: apples, pens...

Create a Skit:

With your group act out a scene in the novel... get creative!

Illustrate a Scene:

Become the illustrator! Draw one of the scenes in the novel. Use plenty of color and be prepared to describe what is happening in your picture

Story Structure:

Identify the structure of the story: beginning, middle, and end. Be able to identify key characters, setting, problems, and solutions.

Story Purpose:

Talk about why the author may have written this story. What do you think the author is trying to teach us?

Sing a Song:

Create a song about the story of Charlotte's Web.

Alternate Ending:

Create an alternate ending the novel, different than the one the author wrote. Get creative, but make sure the ending makes sense!

Mask Making:

Make a mask of any character in the novel. Be anything from a pig to a spider.