Small Hydro Workshop

Friday, October 24th

Overview

This one-day training workshop on small hydroelectric projects is designed for districts, municipalities, counties, and large farms with existing water rights who are interested in developing a small-scale hydroelectric project. The workshop will provide step-by-step advice on the hydroelectric process, including feasibility analysis, permit processes, and implementation.

Topics will include:

- ◆ Project Feasibility: Do I Have a Project?
- ◆ Navigating the Permit Process: What Permits Do I Need or What Permit Don't I Need?
- ◆ Show Me the Money: Incentives, Grants and Funding
- ◆ Bringing It Together: District Experiences with Implementation

The training will also feature representatives from the following agencies and organizations:

- ◆ Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC)
- ◆ Oregon Department of Energy
- ◆ Oregon Water Resources Department
- ◆ Oregon Economic Development Department
