

SAC Implementation Plan

The Implementation Plan outlines the applicant’s planned goals and action steps to ensure that within 120 days of award, all sites will have appropriate staff and providers in place, and begin delivering services to the proposed community and/or target population. Additionally, it must demonstrate that all providers will be contracted/hired and all sites will be operational for the targeted number of hours within one year of Notice of Award. Refer to Appendix C of the funding opportunity announcement (FOA). This attachment is only required for new and competing supplement applicants. Applicants may choose focus areas and goals based on the list below and in Appendix C or provide different focus areas and goals based on the action steps necessary to achieve the required operational status.
