Dear Members:

Remember we will be electing 2 new board members at the Annual Meeting in January. November 20th was the deadline to have your bio posted in the newsletter, but you can still run by filling out an application in the office. As a community, we need your participation at the board level to help make the Board more representative of the different viewpoints around our POA. Time is short, so please think about and then act upon it.

We, the whole Board, would like to thank the members of the ad hoc committee that was charged with redrafting our entire set of rules. Susan Stravato (Chairperson), Sandi Eudey, Todd Gray, Dottie Nation, Prescilla Sanders and John Teague did an outstanding job organizing, editing and adding to our old rules. They completed their work, not on time, but early and did a huge service to our POA. Again, thank you for a great job!

As you probably know, El Nino is forecasted to dump an extra helping of snow on our area this winter. Jeff and the maintenance crew have acquired a new truck, snow plow and sand spreader anticipating that. With the extra sand and salt they have laid in, we should be in good shape for whatever Mother Nature throws our way.

We will send out an email blast as soon as the attorneys finish scrubbing the Rules down and the Board votes to approve them. That email will include the full set of Rules and Regulations, or you may download them from the website. If you are not on the email list, contact the office to be added. Also, Section 209 or the Property Code has been amended by statute. The newer version will be available shortly on the web site as well.

Finally, the Board and Aldermen are working to find a resolution for the police department issue. Updates will be discussed in open session at the upcoming meetings, so please join us. This is a work in progress and we are all, Village and Board, working together to find the best solution.

Summer is gone, so stay warm!

GOLF NEWS

Howdy from the Golf Association,

We've got a lot accomplished in the past year. The driving range is up and running. We removed all the dead trees on the front nine and also trimmed up the live ones. With all the rain we've had, both nines are looking better than ever. We appreciate everybody staying on the cart paths. This keeps all the native Buffalo grass alive and looking great.

This winter we will be talking about ways to raise money for future projects. One idea is to have signs on each tee box describing the hole and yardages. This will give the course a more professional look. There will be room on each sign for sponsors or advertisers. If anybody has suggestions on this idea or any other projects please let us know.

Our Last Quarterly Meeting is scheduled for Sunday Dec.6th at 6:00 p.m. We would like everybody in the golf association to attend, especially everybody who plays in our tournaments. We need everybody's input on future plans for the course. So come by and join in on the fun.

That's all for now but remember to sign you and your guest in at the clubhouse , fill all your divots with the sand provided, and repair all ball marks on the greens. Give me a call with any questions or concerns.

Thank you,

Dean Logan (Vice-president) LTGA

LIBRARY NEWS

A library is not a luxury but one of the necessities of life.

–Henry Ward Beecher

FICTION.

THE MAGIC STRINGS OF FRANKIE PRESTO, by Mitch Albom. Frankie Presto, a war orphan raised by a blind music teacher, is the greatest guitar player ever to walk the earth. His journey weaves through the musical landscape of the 20th century, affecting stars such as Hank Williams and Carole King along the way. But his gift is his burden: through his music, he can affect people's futures.

THE GUILTY, by David Baldacci. Will Robie is the government's best, and most lethal, assassin. He had severed all ties with his past – until his father, a respected attorney in a small, Mississippi Gulf Coast town, is accused of murder. Ignoring his father's wishes, Will begins a desperate investigation into the case. Fourth in the series.

THE CROSSING, by Michael Connelly. Retired LAPD detective Harry Bosch's half-brother, attorney Mickey Haller, needs his help. He is sure the murder rap against his client is a setup. Against his instincts, Bosch takes the case, and with help from his former LAPD partner Lucia Soto, he turns the investigation inside the police department. And makes himself a target. 20th in the Harry Bosch series; sixth in the Mickey Haller series.

CAREER OF EVIL, by Robert Galbraith. A package containing a severed leg is delivered to Robin Ellacott. Her boss, private detective Cormoran Strike, thinks there are four people from his past who could be responsible – and each is capable of unspeakable brutality. He and Robin delve into the dark and twisted worlds of the suspects, as time runs out for the two of them. Third in the series.

AVENUE OF MYSTERIES, by John Irving. Born and raised in Mexico, Juan Diego had a sister, Lupe, who thought she could see the future coming. What might a 13-year-old girl be driven to do if she thought she could change that future? As an older man, Juan Diego travels to the Philippines. There, what happened to him in the past – in Mexico – collides with his future.

THE THEORY OF DEATH, by Faye Kellerman. Now with the Greenbury, Connecticut, police force, Peter Decker's peace is shattered when a body is found in the woods. The investigation leads to a sphere of scheming academics, hidden cyphers, and harmless nerds-turned-calculating, evil geniuses at the nearby college. 22nd in the series featuring Peter Decker and Rina Lazarus.

YOU, by Caroline Kepnes. Beck doesn't know it yet, but she is perfect for Joe, and he seems custom-made for her. But there's more to Joe than Beck realizes, and much more to Beck than her oh-so-perfect facade. Their mutual obsession quickly spirals into a whirlwind of deadly consequences.

MURDER ON ST. NICHOLAS AVENUE, by Victoria Thompson. Detective Sergeant Frank Malloy and Sarah Brandt are not the only ones who have recently tied the knot. Family friend Mrs. O'Neill was delighted when her daughter Una wed the seemingly wealthy and charming Randolph Pollock. She didn't wonder why such an affluent man would want to marry a poor Irish girl, no matter how pretty she was. But now Mrs. O'Neill has a problem. A Gaslight Mystery.

THE STORIED LIFE OF A.J. FIKRY, by Gabrielle Zevin. With his wife gone, a rare book stolen, and both his bookstoravee and love of life in serious decline, only something extraordinary could alter the sagging fortunes of A.J. Fikry and Island Books. What he discovers one night among the children's books, however, could change everything. "A love letter to books and the culture around them."

NON FICTION

I SHOULD BE DEAD, by Bob Beckel. Growing up poor in an abusive home, Bob Beckel learned to be a survivor: to avoid conflict, mask his feelings, and to lie--all skills that served him well in Washington, where he would become the youngest-ever Deputy Assistant Secretary of State and manage Walter Mondale's 1984 presidential campaign. But Beckel was living a double life. On January 20, 2001--George W. Bush's first Inauguration Day--he hit rock bottom, waking up in the psych ward. Written with captivating honesty, Beckel chronicles how his addictions nearly killed him until he found help in an unexpected ally, conservative Cal Thomas, who helped him find faith, get sober, and get his life back on track.

AGENTS OF BABYLON, by Dr. David Jeremiah. This book examines prophecy through the eyes of the characters in the book of Daniel, explains what the prophecies mean, and helps us understand how these prophetic visions and dreams apply to our lives today.

THE WITCHES – SALEM 1692, by Stacy Schiff. It began in the raw Massachusetts winter of 1692, when a minister's daughter began to scream and convulse. It ended less than a year later, but not before 19 men and women had been hanged and an elderly man crushed to death. The panic spread quickly as neighbors accused neighbors, parents and children each other. In curious ways, the trials would shape the future republic.

OLD SCHOOL (DIARY OF A WIMPY KID), by Jeff Kinney. Life was better in the old days. Or was it? That's the question Greg Heffley is asking as his town voluntarily unplugs and goes electronics-free. But modern life has its conveniences, and Greg isn't cut out for an old-fashioned world. With tension building inside and outside the Heffley home, will Greg find a way to survive?
